2027 INSPECT FELLOWS

Potential Host Offices

Indiana Science Policy: Educate, Collaborate, Transform

Indiana Department of Natural Resources (IDNR)

Division of Fish, Wildlife & Nature Preserves

PREFERRED FIELDS OF STUDY

Biology | Data Science | Economics | Human Dimensions | Natural Resources | Political Science | Sociology

SCOPE OF WORK

- Fellow will work with the DFW Office of Science and Research to predict/assess the impact of proposed/implemented rule changes or legislation related to the management of fish or wildlife in Indiana.
- May include analysis and synthesis of biological, economic, and/or social data collected by the agency to address a policy question.

Indiana State Office of Energy Development (OED)

PREFERRED FIELDS OF STUDY

Not restricted | Data Science | Data Analysis | Data Visualization

SCOPE OF WORK

- Three “arms” (heavy on policy): Policy, Education & Public Outreach, Grant-Making
- Data analysis geared towards eventual policy-making and outreach
- Works closely with Governor’s Office and with federal agencies
- Topics: electricity, work with INDOT on alternative fuel sources, energy security, etc.
- 21st Century Energy Task Force and its 5 Pillars inform all policies
  - Reliability, Resiliency, Stability, Affordability, Environmental Sustainability

Other Host Offices may be added during the application period. Applicants will be notified immediately if these Agencies confirm participation.